

Academy's Community Team & Young People's Report

- Justin Atkin and Shane Linford met with Tom Horton and Adam Farrow to discuss further their wishes to step down from their One Voice commitment (Justin to feedback information).
- The Academy Community Team and Immingham Young Peoples Centre are looking to deliver further youth work level 1 training and it is envisaged that other young people will be identified with a view to them maybe representing young people's voice on the One Voice committee.
- Shane Linford, Tom Horton and Adam Farrow attempted the Yorkshire Three Peaks Challenge, Sat 30th October, to raise further funds towards Tom and Adams 2011 trip to Bangladesh.
- The Academy held an Open Day on Sunday, 31st October to enable members of the community to view the fitness suite and leisure area. It is envisaged the facilities will be open for community use from January 2011. - Immingham Young Peoples Centre had a successful Rave night attracting over 100 young people. By popular demand they are having another Rave night, Friday 26th November, 7- 10 pm, 13-17 yrs. Their other future events: SING STAR COMPETITION, FRIDAY NOVEMBER 5TH, 13-19 YRS. BAND NIGHT, CIVIC CENTRE, FRIDAY 12TH NOVEMBER, 13-19 YRS.
- Shane Linford is to arrange a meeting with Janet Cowan (Extended Schools Co-ordinator) and Mark Evan (the new senior Youth/Community Worker at Immingham Young Peoples Centre) to plan February's 2011 half-term activities.
- Mark Evans brings much knowledge and experience and the Academy Community Team are very pleased to be partnering with him. It may be useful to One Voice to invite Mark to a meeting so he can introduce himself and discuss the work he is looking to deliver in Immingham.
- The Youth Crime Prevention Project which was sponsored by One Voice is starting another course Friday 12th Nov. The project has recently been nominated for a Safer Communities Award for tackling anti social behavior.
- Immingham Amature Boxing Club is looking to move to a new building ASAP, they have agreed terms for the building next to Farm Foods. They too have been nominated for a Safer Communities Award for tackling anti social behavior.
- Academy Community Team has appointed a new part-time volunteer's co-coordinator; Ellen Cho-Young and she will be recruiting volunteers and is also working alongside Jez O'Kane at VANEL.
- The Immingham in Bloom presentation night was very successful with over 100 guests attending and 15 young people also received a Mayors Community Award for their positive community participation.
