7) Cohabitation
Cohabitation	To live together in a sexual relationship, without being married.
Family type	Cohabitation is the fastest growing family type in the UK
Conservative Christians/Catholics	No cohabitation. Sex should be after marriage. "A man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and two will become one flesh" This is said during a wedding ceremony.
Liberal Christians (Protestants)	Acceptable in committed relationships. "Love thy neighbour" accept peoples choices. Jesus showed agape to people.
Buddhists	No problems with cohabitation as Buddhists are not required to get married. They should control sex so that is doesn't cause dukkha.

8) Adultery
Adultery	Choosing to have sex with someone you are not married to
Christian response	Adultery is wrong <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Marriage is a sacrament (cannot be broken)</li> <li>b) Breaks the vows – Death us do part</li> <li>c) One of the 10 commandments "Thou shall not commit adultery"</li> <li>d) Adultery can destroy a family</li> </ul>
Buddhist response	Adultery is wrong <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Causes dukkha</li> <li>b) Produces bad karma</li> <li>c) Right Intention not shown</li> <li>d) Do not harm a living being (lies/hurt)</li> <li>e) Shouldn't crave sex (indulgence)</li> </ul>

10) Religious response to sex		12) Homosexuality
Conservative Christians	Pre-marital sex is wrong. Sex should be within marriage, It is a gift from God. "A man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and two will become one flesh" "Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit" – do not have causal sex as devaluing your body. Promiscuity is wrong.	Law	a) In 1967 homosexuality was decriminalised in the UK b) Civil Partnership Act in 2004 gave same-sex couples the same legal rights as married couples. c) Marriage Act in 2013 – legalised same-sex marriage.
Liberal Christians	Sex within a loving committed relationship is acceptable. Promiscuity and adultery is wrong though.	Conservative Christian view	Homosexuality is a sin. "A man must not have sexual relations with another man; God hates that". In the Bible homosexuality was punishable by death.
Buddhists	Sex must be controlled and not in excess (craving is bad) Sex must not cause dukkha – promiscuity would be wrong as it can cause hurt. Monks and nuns should be celibate to channel energy into their religious work.	Catholic View	Same-sex marriage is wrong because a sexual relationship should only exist between a man and a woman. It goes against 'Natural Law' sex cannot lead to procreation.
11) Contraception		Quakers	Fully accept homosexuality and will marry gay couples. "All made in the image of God" all humans are equal and should be respected.
Contraception	Methods used to prevent a woman from becoming pregnant during or following sexual intercourse	Buddhists	No official views on same-sex marriage. Some are against because one of the precepts "Do not abuse your body with sexual misconduct". Some would argue because no procreation that it is wrong. Others argue that it is acceptable because if a person is free to live their life they wont have dukkha.
Natural Methods	A person abstains from sex when they are most fertile "rhythm method"	Questions to Consider
Artificial methods	The pill, condoms, the coil,	b)	Describe why there might be issues within an interfaith marriage (5)
Catholic Response	No artificial contraception. Natural Law – Thomas Aquinas – one of the primary precepts for humans was to reproduce. This means contraception is wrong because it stops this from happening. Goes against the natural function of the body. Priests should be celibate	b)	Describe from one religion their view on promiscuity (5)
Protestants	Artificial contraception is allowed as long as both people agree. Free will to choose. Sex is about love, and not just about procreating.	c)	Explain from two different religions or religious traditions their view on same-sex marriage (8)
Buddhists	Contraception is acceptable if it is 'right intention'. Buddhists are against the coil as the egg is fertilised. Life begins at conception and therefore harming a living being when it cannot develop.	c)	Explain from two different religious or religious traditions their view on contraception (8)
